

The CAN Summit in the First State

SEPTEMBER 19–20, 2018

We look forward to welcoming you to Wilmington, Delaware September 19–20 for the CAN Summit! The sessions at the Summit will highlight advocacy work across the state of Delaware and provide a platform for local, regional and national leaders to engage in a discussion of our shared work. The Summit will be interactive, with opportunities to share with and learn from participants, presenters and the 50CAN network. Our programming will look to the future, highlighting strategies and tactics that can be used to make impactful change for students.

A finalized agenda with speaker bios and breakout times will be available in the coming weeks. 50CAN will alert invitees to new additions to the agenda as they are published.

Please note:
